- Restaurant (presented by Wendy Boyer) – Wendy repeated the committee’s request for direct discussions with the Board. The Board responded that the current guidelines of our committee policy remain our preferred method in what is an ambitious attempt to resurrect a functioning committee structure. The guidelines establish the committee’s role as advisory to the Board. The primary communication links are to be submittal of the meeting minutes to the Board and through the Board Liaison (Kevin Schuettrumpf).
- Security (presented by Michael Kloton) – Michael expressed optimism that the information obtained from their planned survey will provide valuable insight relative to what is important to our community.
- Volunteer (presented by Blanche Kania).

Questions/Comments from Residents (approximately 12 individuals):

- Several individuals pointed out the apparent conflict of interest relative to Ray Drasher (CEO) also soliciting swale cleaning work. The Board agreed.
- Several Individuals advised the Board relative to a serious feral cat problem on Snow Valley Drive. The Board was not previously aware of this situation and thanked members for the information.
- Discussions relative to our current inadequate security system again overwhelmed the session. Multiple options are currently being reviewed and input from the community will be critical to arriving at a consensus.

April certainly left in a hurry!

The warm weather means lots of outdoor activities. The boat docks are going in and the deck is being prepared for opening. The deck area located off the courtyard is being refurbished to allow more seating and entertainment has been booked.

The Recreation and Volunteer Committees have some great events in the works. The Fishing Derby is May 15th, do not forget to sign up. There is a Strawberry Festival planned for June. There will be some games for the kids and of course strawberries and ice-cream. A cardboard boat race on the lake is being considered. Watch the Newsletter and Constant Contact for additional events.

GFL (formerly County Waste) now requires that all garbage and recycling be in the containers they provide that can be lifted by their trucks. Any bags, boxes, etc that are not in the containers will not be picked up. You can contact GFL for larger containers.

We are looking into a system that will allow us to text/call everyone in case of an emergency. Stay tuned for updates.

Kidz Camp will happen, whether it is activity boxes or in person has not yet been decided. The decision will depend on the COVID guidelines and staffing levels in effect at that time.

Security continues to be a high priority. If you have any suggestions, please contact the board or the Security Committee. We are constantly looking for ways to "fix" the system. You will be receiving a questionnaire from the Security Committee. Please take the time to complete the survey.

TIPS From Penn State
Master Gardeners

Hello Beech Mountain Gardeners!

Are you ready for spring? March gave us a few hints of spring and a few reminders that winter isn't quite ready to give up. April promises warmer days, but don't get ahead of the calendar with planting annual flowers and veggies. Most annuals require warmer soil temperatures so early planting does not give them a head start, and risks damage in late frosts.

SOIL TESTS

Soil testing is one of the most important investments you can make in your landscape. Whether it is for your turf lawn your perennial beds or a vegetable garden. This is an ideal time to get your soil tested through Penn State's Soil Test Laboratory.

Each sample is analyzed for pH, lime requirement, and for phosphorus, potassium, magnesium, and calcium. The final report includes the chemical analysis of the soil along with lime and fertilizer recommendations for the crop specified.

Soil testing through Penn State's Soils Lab cost just $9.00, a small investment when fertilizers can cost up to $40 per bag. Applying fertilizer without a soil test is like taking drugs without a prescription, a waste of money and dangerous to your lawn and garden.

Soil test kits are currently difficult to find because of Covid related closures of Penn State's Extension Offices. However you can construct your own test kit using the information available online at agsci.psu.edu/aasl/soil-testing/fertility.

Instructions on how to collect a sample along with forms for submitting the sample are available at the above link.

You can place your sample in a sturdy Ziplock bag. Then place it along with the submission form and your check for $9.00 in a padded mailing envelope like the ones Amazon sends small packages in. The mailing address is provided on the submission form.

Tree Trunks

As you know from previous columns, I care a great deal about trees here in Beech Mountain. They are valuable assets that provide year round beauty, shade in summer, color in fall, and many produce attractive flowers and fruits that feed wildlife. They also consume planet warming CO<sub>2</sub>, and produce Oxygen. One of the hazards that we create for trees is burying their roots too deeply causing them to decline or die.

One quick test of any tree's root depth is to check its trunk for root flare. Trees growing at the right depth display a flair at the base of the trunk. A tree that resembles a phone pole growing straight out of the soil is planted too deeply.

Root flare covered with soil or mulch will stay moist encouraging bark devouring pests and disease organisms. Ground covers that grow against the base of a tree can also cause damage. Keep the root flare bare and open to light and air.

In addition all trees are affected by mechanical damage. Be sure to keep your mower and string trimmer away from the trunk of your trees.

IN Praise of Daffodils

Anyone living in Beech Mountain must notice the abundance of daffodils throughout the development and the scarcity of other spring flowers like tulips and crocus. Daffodils dominate our spring landscape because of natural selection.

The selecting force is our ever present deer that ignore daffodils while eating other spring flowering bulbs. Deer, rabbits, groundhogs and other small rodents ignore daffodils because they contain poisonous compounds including lycorine.

Daffodils are reliable perennials that will grow and multiply for many years with minimal care. Daffodils prefer growing in full sun, but can tolerate quite a bit of shade. Be sure to allow the leaves of your daffodils to grow undisturbed until they die back in early summer. Apply a little fertilizer after the daffodils bloom, about a tablespoon of 0-10-10 or 0-0-50 fertilizer sprinkled around the base of the plants should take care of that need. Do not over fertilize and avoid nitrogen rich fertilizers.

*TIPS from Master Gardeners is an educational outreach from the Penn State Extension. Master Gardener volunteers utilize research-based information to provide education on best practices in horticulture and environmental stewardship.
